Conrad Wilde Gallery is pleased to present Different Light; a solo exhibition featuring the luminous sculptures of Tucson artist, Carrie Seid. The exhibition opens Saturday, April 4th and runs through Saturday, April 25th. The artist will be present for a reception Saturday, April 11th from 6-9 pm. Conrad Wilde Gallery is located at 210 N. 4th Ave. in the heart of Tucson's downtown arts district.

Carrie Seid's enigmatic wall sculptures seem to glow from within. Metaphorical and physical tension is built as two opposing elements meet. Imparting to viewers a visceral sense of the sublime, Seid's radiant constructions carry forward the legacy of historically important artists working in the arenas of light, space, perception, and minimalist forms. "Painting and sculpture are too categorically limited for the emotional states of being that Seid so elegantly conjures... Smoke and shadow, dissipation and loss, energy and anatomy." (Gerry Craig, Sculpture Magazine July/August 2000)
