Conrad Wilde Gallery is pleased to present The Forest; a solo exhibition featuring new paintings by celebrated Tucson artist, Gwyneth Scally. The exhibition opens with a reception Saturday, May 2nd from 6-9 p.m. and runs through Saturday, May 30th. Conrad Wilde Gallery is located at 210 N. 4th Ave. in the heart of Tucson's downtown arts district.

Scally's newest series, The Forest, explores our complicated relationship to the natural world. Using images from local forests and settings observed during an artist's residency in Newfoundland, Canada, Scally creates odd juxtapositions between human beings and the environment. Exposing "humanity's skewed relationship with nature, through allegories of displacement", these arresting panoramas depict a relationship with nature that is at once unsettling and sinister, while occasionally romantic and nostalgic.

Conrad Wilde Gallery features contemporary painting, sculpture and works on paper from established and emerging artists based locally and nationally. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday 11 am to 5 pm and by appointment by calling 520-622-8997.
