Conrad Wilde Gallery is pleased to present our newest exhibition, Relative Geometries opening in our Main Gallery with a reception Saturday, November 3rd from 6-9 pm. The show runs through Saturday, November 24th. The gallery is located at 210 N. 4th Ave. Tucson, AZ 85705.

Relative Geometries features four contemporary artists working in geometric abstraction influenced by post minimalism. These artists create lush surfaces utilizing geometry based on organic and non-rigid forms.

Miles Conrad, of Tucson, uses vertical stripes, rich color, and alive textures with encaustic on panel. Seattle artist John Dempcy creates colorful grid compositions of circular forms in a wet-on-wet acrylic process. Eileen Goldenberg, from San Francisco, makes dot matrix compositions of in bright red, gold, and white with encaustic on panel. Los Angeles artist, Robert Moya creates detailed mosaics made from translucent water-based mixed media on panel.

Conrad Wilde Gallery features contemporary painting, sculpture and works on paper from emerging and established artists based locally and nationally. Our Salon Gallery will exhibit a selection of works from represented gallery artists. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and by appointment by calling 520-622-8997. Visit www.conradwildegallery.com for more info.
